

How you can help support the

Home manifesto

The Senedd elections are coming up on 6 May, but our campaign activity
isn't slowing down!

As we move towards this next phase, we have provided a list of ways you may be able to support with communications along with the time commitment it might take:

3
hours Gather and share short quotes, videos, or images from tenants answering the question “what does home mean to you?”

2
hours Write and share a case study that links to the themes of the campaign (homelessness – digital inclusion – economy – jobs – health - decarbonisation) template here

1
hour Use regional data and press release template to engage with local media outlets

30
mins Film and share a video case study that links to the themes of the campaign (homelessness – digital inclusion – economy – jobs – health - decarbonisation)

10
mins Tweet manifesto key messages alongside your own existing videos and case studies – example tweets here

5
mins Use #HereForHomes on social media alongside your existing content which is relevant to the manifesto, so that we can see your posts and share on CHC platforms

min Retweet and share from CHC's accounts

1
min Use the Home branded background for any external video calls

Home Campaign Resource Packs:

The #HereForHomes campaign website now has a section dedicated to resources to help you support the manifesto campaign.

There are fully bilingual packs of infographics, social media images, video clips, and brand assets, this area will expand over the coming months with editable templates as well as national and regional data packs. You can find the pack here: www.hereforhomes.org.uk/en/resources
